

Name

Date

Introduction to Interactive Experience Design

Briefly summarise what interactive experience design is

Provide an example of how interactive experience design can overlap with environment design

Provide an example of how interactive experience design can overlap with object design

Provide three examples of real world interactive experience designs and their purposes